*In this contract, we outline the investment process for investors and explain how the profits generated from their investments will be calculated and distributed.

Note: – The Modirol brands may be marketed, distributed, and offered in all countries worldwide. Their registration does not face any legal restrictions except within the Islamic Republic of Iran.

Investment Terms:

At the outset, it should be stated that 2% of the total amount invested by the Investor shall be allocated to Mr. Sajad Goodarzi Rad, who is the other party to this Agreement.

Definitions: Who are "We"? "We" refers to the Modirol Promotional Gifts Office. What is the "Total Amount"? The "Total Amount" means the entire amount of money deposited by the Investor into the designated investment account. Who are the Parties to this Agreement? The Investor is the first party to this Agreement, and Mr. Sajad Goodarzi Rad is the second party.

Profit Distribution:

The Investor's profit shall be calculated according to the percentage of ownership represented by the Investor's shares in relation to the total issued shares.

The Investor shall be entitled to:

- 2% of the sales revenue generated by each product, calculated in proportion to the Investor's ownership percentage.
- 2% of the total monthly sales revenue of all products, calculated using the same ownership percentage.
- 2% of the total annual sales revenue of all products, calculated using the same ownership percentage.

Each investment share has a fixed value of USD 25.

Investment Payment

The investment amount shall be paid by the Investor through a bank in Iran. This Agreement shall become effective upon execution and signature by both parties.

Investment Period and Withdrawal

Investments made in the Modirol brands shall remain as active investment capital for an initial period of one (1) year, during which no investment profit shall be payable.

The Investor may request the withdrawal of the invested capital at any time. In such a case, 5% of the invested capital shall be deducted as a withdrawal fee, and the remaining balance shall be transferred to the Investor.
